

ARMY TO BLACKLIST TRADE PROFITEERS

Retail stores and amusement places that profiteer on the man in uniform will be blacklisted by the army. A general order declares that camp commanders shall post lists of places which thus discriminate, in order that the man in uniform can avoid such denials. As a rule, it is held that the business men of communities near camps are making no distinctions against the service man.

Third John Weidmer To Fight For France, In Marine Corps

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 5.—For more than a hundred years there has been a John Weidmer to fight in defense of France. Today it is John Weidmer of the Eighty-fourth Company, Sixth Regiment, U. S. Marines, and he has participated in some of the most desperate engagements and escaped unscathed.

His great-grandfather, John Weidmer, fought with Napoleon I through his first campaign as one of the Swiss Guards. His grandfather, John Weidmer, also a Swiss, fought with the French in the Crimean war and later was in the Union army during the Civil war.

The parents of John Weidmer, marine, live at 3538 Halliday avenue, this city.

THREAT CAUSES SUICIDE

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 5.—Under threats of a vendetta alleged to have dated from a murder in Pittsburg, Pa., Private Frank Perito is being held by his own hand at the Presidio military reservation, and Angelo Nordi is under detention while police and military authorities investigate accusations made by Perito that Nordi is the slayer of his cousin, Incenzo Bedetto, near Pittsburgh, three years ago.

$170,500,000 FUND ASKED FOR YANKS

All collateral war organizations, such as the Y. M. C. A., Knights of Columbus, and Salvation Army—will be linked as one body in a drive the week of November 11 for a $170,500,000 fund.

President Wilson's approval of a joint campaign has settled this point. Previously it had been planned to have two separate campaigns, divided mainly along the lines of the Y. M. C. A. and a few others, followed by the Knights of Columbus and Jewish institutions.

The Charles Frohman Company has surrounded Mr. Skinner with a most capable company, including Elizabeth Riddon, Beryl Mercer, Ruth Rome, and Francis Slosson. Robert Fleming Ward, Clara Bracey, Robert Harrison, Ernest Elton, Robert Entwistle, John Rogers, and Walter Scott. The scenic equipment is a most elaborate and tasteful one.

ENTERS RADIO SERVICE

Emanuel R. Haas, general manager of the National Radio School, has answered the call of Uncle Sam for trained men in wireless work and will take up his new duties Monday at Camp Vail, N. J.

Haas has supervised the work at the school to such an extent that he has been graduated and accepted in the Signal Corps more than 800 students in the past eighteen months. Almost every nationality has been represented in the many men and women who have left the school and have qualified for Government service. Haas will take a short training at Camp Vail before leaving for duty somewhere in France.

What Theaters Offer Next Week

NATIONAL.
The National Theater will present for one week beginning Monday evening, September 9, Otis Skinner, in a new comedy by Horace Annesley Vachell entitled "Humpty-Dumpty."

In "Humpty-Dumpty" Mr. Skinner is Albert Mott, an ambitious English haidresser with a great respect for his calling and a great love for his mother. It is suddenly discovered that Mott is of aristocratic birth and the rightful heir to the Mottifont peerage. The happy story is a comedy, pretty girl who in it was his assistant is deserted by Mott and accompanied by his mother, the haidresser, takes up his career amid the elegant surroundings of Mottifont house. The climax occurs when Albert Mott discovers that he has really been all the time in love with his erstwhile assistant.

The Charles Frohman Company has surrounded Mr. Skinner with a most capable company, including Elizabeth Riddon, Beryl Mercer, Ruth Rome, and Francis Slosson. Robert Fleming Ward, Clara Bracey, Robert Harrison, Ernest Elton, Robert Entwistle, John Rogers, and Walter Scott. The scenic equipment is a most elaborate and tasteful one.

BELASCO.
At the Belasco Theater next Sunday night, Oliver Morosco will present a new comedy entitled "The Walk-Offs."

The central figures are a rich young Kentuckian with good, old-fashioned ideas as to the women and matrimony and a beautiful New York girl with a thoroughly worldly point of view. Throughout the play there is an interesting conflict of smart set and wholesome American ideas.

Oliver Morosco has gathered together for "The Walk-Offs" a company of all-star caliber, including Edward Lowe, Carroll McCormack, Fannie Felt, and Charles B. Clary.

POLY.
At Poly Theater beginning next Monday evening John D. Williams will offer for the first time in this city Oscar Wilde's four-act comedy, "An Ideal Husband." This was one of Wilde's plays that was running so successfully in London at the time when the great catastrophe overwhelmed him, and in deference to public opinion, "An Ideal Husband" was withdrawn and not performed again in England until Sir George Alexander revived it with marked success a season or two ago.

The cast is a large one and includes the names of Norman Trevor, Constance Collier, Julian Eltinge, Cyril Harcourt, Beatrice Beckley, and others.

R. F. KEITH'S.
Stella Mayhew, "the cheeriest comedienne," will farwell next week at R. F. Keith's Theater, as the buxom and bonnie laughmaker is going abroad as the head of the Stella Mayhew unit for the purpose of looking lively the spirits of the lady who have the Huns on the run. The extra added stellar feature will be a fifty-minute condensed version of "The Only Girl." There will be twelve players, three scenes, costumes galore, and life and color dazling. Jack Wyatt and his Scotch lads and lassies will be another special. Jimmie Lucas, the "nut" comedian, will indulge in his "Wild Ravings of 1918." Edwin George, always described as "almost a juggler," will travesty in "Comedy of Errors." Parsons and Irwin will offer "A Messenger From the Front." Others will be the Leo Zarrell trio, the pipe organ recitals, and the He-Pathe News pictorial with actualities.

Next Sunday, at 5 and 8:15 p. m., this week's bill in its entirety will be repeated.

GAYETY.
A strong cast of well-established favorites in the world of burlesque appear in "The Maids of the U. S. A.," the coming week's attraction at the Gayety Theater. A two-act musical revue is the principal offering. Many pleasing specialties are to be featured during its action. Lew Hilton and Ina Hayward, two popular entertainers, head the cast which also includes Clara Evans, John Johnson, Charles Fraz, Roy Peck, Mlle. Babette, Aurelia Clark, Tenny Hillson and Gene Fleming.

In addition a chorus of twenty young and attractive girls will be seen in the several musical numbers and ensembles.

COSMOS.
David Wark Griffith's latest film masterpiece, "The Great Love," will be the extraordinary matinee attraction at the Cosmos Theater next week, in addition to a standard bill of vaudeville attractions, supplemented with other film features. Sunday's performances, starting at 3 p. m., will feature the military spectacle, "On the Western Front," and Jack Marley, the most enjoyable musical comedy of the season, as leaders of a seven-act bill of vaudeville features, in addition to the usual film features.

CASINO.
A treat is in store for Capital burlesque patrons at the Casino Theater next week, when the "Topsy Turvy Girls" open their engagement here. Beginning with a matinee Sunday, the organization will present a clean burlesque show of the type which has made the Casino popular under its new management.

The cast includes Tom Howard and Billy Kelly, and the specialty act at 8:30, and will continue until 10:30 p. m. Tonight and every night this week dancing will be the special feature for the pleasure seekers. In addition, there are the many amusement devices of the park, including the three big thrillers—the Gravity railway, the Whip, and the Derby Racer.

CHEVY CHASE LAKE.
The management of Chevy Chase Lake announces that both of the dancing pavilions will remain open until Saturday, September 21. With the return of the cool evenings dancing at the Lake will be at the height of its popularity. It is difficult to decide which of the two pavilions is the more popular, the one with the orchestra or the one with the jazz band.

"SOMETIME" PLAYS SUNDAY.
The management of Poly Theater announces that the engagement of Arthur Hammerstein's musical comedy, "Sometime," will terminate with the performance on Sunday night instead of Saturday, as originally planned. This is due to an unusually heavy advance sale.

SOLDIER ARRESTED FOR GUARD'S DEATH

CAMP McCLELLAN, Annapolis, Md., Sept. 5.—John Musa, charged with the murder of Private Walter Carey, Company I, 113th Infantry, early last spring, is under arrest at Newark, N. J., according to information made public here. He will be returned to Camp McClellan for trial by court-martial under a charge of first degree murder. Carey's home was in Baltimore. He was killed while guarding four prisoners, all of whom escaped.

PRISONERS MUST WORK

ATLANTA, Ga., Sept. 5.—Six hundred German war prisoners formerly in the Fort McPherson stockade have been placed at work in army cantonments, it was learned today.

The prisoners have been sent to Camp Devens, Mass.; Camp Sherman, Ohio; Camp Grant, Illinois; Camp Sevier, South Carolina; Camp Wadsworth, South Carolina, and Camp Jackson, South Carolina.

CRITERION.
"The Geizer of Berlin," a travesty on "The Kaiser, the Beast of Berlin," will be the extraordinary attraction at the Criterion Theater the month of next week, beginning Sunday. The new film, which ridicules the Kaiser and the Prussian military system, is also a subtle blow at Prussianism. Just as effective, but from another angle, as "The Kaiser."

The picture is a scream from start to finish, and the ridiculous scenes which hold the Kaiser and his cohorts up to public mockery are sure to keep audiences in one continuous howl.

Other pictures of unusual merit will round out the program. They include a new Charlie Chaplin release, "Triple Trouble."

CHESAPEAKE BEACH.
Regular train service is being maintained all this week to Chesapeake Beach, which will remain open probably throughout the month of September. Curtained service will commence next Monday, and will continue throughout the remainder of the season, with the exception of Saturdays and Sundays, on which days the regular schedule will be followed.

All of the numerous amusements lining the long boardwalk are still in full operation. Surf bathing, fishing, and crabbing remain popular attractions. Free band concerts and free concerts are daily features. The delightful weather is drawing many picnic parties to the resort.

STEAMER CHARLES MACALESTER.
While Marshall Hall has closed for the season, delightful river rides are still available to Washingtonians for the steamer Charles Macalester is now making the popular forty-mile moonlight trips. The boat leaves the wharf at night at 7 o'clock, returning at 10:30 p. m. Before 10:30 p. m. the total distance of forty miles without stop is made. The steamer makes 129 miles daily to Mt. Vernon, leaving at 10:30 a. m. and 2:30 p. m.

WOULD I MAKE A GOOD TELEPHONE OPERATOR?

THAT IS THE QUESTION many young women are asking daily when the problem of proper employment presents itself to them. To help these young women decide this question we give below the general qualifications that are necessary for admittance to our Training Department course. APPLICANTS FOR THE POSITION of telephone operator must be intelligent, self-respecting young women who have had at least a grammar school education or its equivalent.

THEY SHOULD BE IN GOOD HEALTH, well mannered, have pleasant voices and no pronounced impediment in speech. They should be willing to apply themselves to their work and have a desire to please subscribers. Young women from 17 to 25 years of age are usually the most successful candidates.

NO STUDENT OPERATOR IS ALLOWED TO HANDLE CALLS from the public until she has had a thorough course of training in our Operators' Training Department. No fee is charged for this instruction. On the contrary, students are paid while learning.
